Mill Street Funding Partners Announces Name Change and Launches New Website

Toronto, ON, July 23, 2015 — Mill Street Funding Partners Inc. (“Mill Street”), the diversified investment company committed to creating sustainable, long-term growth for its partners, is proud to announce its new name – Mill Street & Co. The company is also pleased to launch its new website and to open the doors of its new office located at 7616 Yonge Street.

“We are very excited about this evolution of our company,” said Noah Murad, President of Mill Street & Co. “At our core, we are not really ‘partners who fund’ but are an investment firm that represents a group of people and companies. When we perform any action, we know that it has to be reflective of the exceptional partnerships that we have built. Mill Street & Co., for us, carries this commitment.”

While changing in name, Mill Street’s goal remains the same – to partner with investors and the management of the companies it invests in to generate long-term growth through the creation of real value.
